

By 17 November; 17-18 March - The international conference "New perspectives in science education", Edition 11, will take place in Florence, Italy, and online in March, organised by Pixel International Conferences. Topics include: Biomedical science education; Chemistry education; Curriculum development; Educational strategies; Engineering education; Enhancing student engagement; Extra curricula activities; Preschool and primary education; Science and environment; Science and society; Science teaching methods; Special needs; STEM education; Student assessment; Student conceptions; Teacher professional development. (F: conference.pixel-online.net, (F: UWN Oct. 2021)